Happy Winter!

We hope you enjoy the Recreation and Library Services Guide. Thank you for your interest and participation in our programs. We are dedicated to strengthening our community and helping San Marino residents maintain safe, healthy and quality lives.

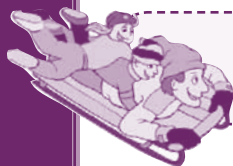

San Marino Recreation and the Crowell Public Library offer a variety of educational, leisure, and recreational opportunities. Not only do we operate in concert and in collaboration with other services in the community, but we also work with residents to ensure that the needs and priorities of San Marino are being met.

The Recreation and Library Services Guide is mailed to residents every quarter. If you are not receiving the Guide and you would like to be added to our mailing list to receive future publications, please contact us at (626) 403-2200. The guide is also available at the Crowell Public Library, City Hall, the Recreation Office, and at www.cityofsanmarino.org.

As a valued resident and customer, please know that you are our highest priority. If you experience something that does not meet your expectations, please notify us promptly and we will do our best to assist you.

Top Secret News: Next One Book/One City Selection

If it's January, it means the Friends of the Crowell Public Library are ready to announce the author/title of their selected One Book/One City! We invite everyone to read the book and attend special book-related events, culminating with the author visiting in April! What is the book? Who is the author? Watch for announcements in mid-January; it's a secret until then! Multiple copies will be available in the library. Watch our website for details!

Library Programs FOR CHILDREN

Support provided through the generosity of the Friends of the Crowell Public Library.

Toddler Storytime (ages 2-3)

Mondays and Wednesdays, 10:30 am, begins Jan. 11

Calling all toddlers! Toddler Storytime is a great way to introduce your little one to a group experience. Activities include stories, singing songs and finger plays. Participants may come either Mondays or Wednesdays. Registration is not required.

Preschool Storytime (ages 3-5)

Beginning Jan. 12, Tuesdays, 1:30 pm and Thursdays, 10:30 am (NEW TIME)

Calling all preschoolers! Come to the library for stories, songs, finger plays, and a simple craft activity. Storytime is an excellent way to teach young children the skills they will need in kindergarten--such as listening quietly and following instructions. Participants may come either Tuesdays or Thursdays. Registration is not required.

Bilingual

Chinese and English Storytime

Saturdays, Monthly 10:30 am

This interactive storytime is for speakers of Mandarin Chinese, English or both! Stories, songs and finger plays in English and Mandarin Chinese will be offered one Saturday per month in the children's area. All ages are welcomed, although the program is designed for ages 3-5. Please join us!

Barks & Books

Saturdays: January 16, February 20, March 20, 11 am

Elementary school children are invited to the Crowell Public Library to practice their reading skills by reading to a gentle dog. This special program is made possible by volunteers of the Pasadena Humane Society. Registration is not required.

Tween Scene

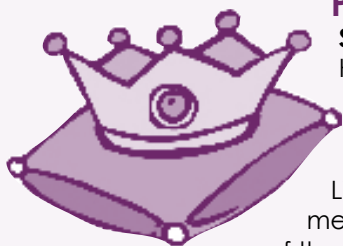

Third Thursdays: January 21, February 18, March 18, 3:30 pm

Too old for kiddy programs but too young for TAB? Then Tween Scene is where you belong! Come get crafty, go on a scavenger hunt, or show us your best Wii moves! We'll be doing something different every month. Grades 4 - 6 are invited to join us in this brand new club for tweens only! Registration is required, please call (626) 300-0777.

Special Events FOR THE FAMILY

Special family events invite the entire family to come together and experience all the library has to offer. We offer fun and exciting experiences for all to enjoy. Don't miss these wonderful events sponsored by the Friends of the Crowell Public Library.

Princess Storytime

Saturday, January 23, 2-3 pm

Here ye, Here ye, children of the land are cordially invited to attend the Royal Tea and Storytime at the Crowell Public Library. You will have the honor of meeting the Queen and Princesses of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses

Royal Court, and be enchanted by stories of princes and princesses. Remember to wear your finest royal attire and bring your camera for pictures! This is an extra special occasion because we will also be unveiling the winners of our annual Bookmark Contest!

Percy Jackson Party

Saturday, February 6, 2 pm

Calling all demigods! In honor of the "Percy Jackson" movie release, you are invited to attend Camp Half-Blood! All demigods will be claimed by their rightful Greek god or goddess. Come dressed in your finest Greek toga (or bedsheets!) to receive a special prize worthy of the gods.

Valentine's Craft Day

Thursday, February 11, 3-5 pm

Valentine's Day is fast approaching! Do you have someone special you would like to make a card or a craft for? Join us at the library for our special Valentine Make-It and Take-It Craft Day. Children, ages 3 and up, are invited to the library to make valentine crafts. Drop in any time between 3 and 5 pm. Helpers and supplies will be on hand. Registration is not required.

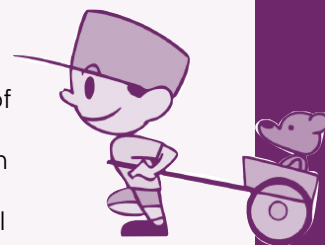

Community Calendar

Find out what's happening all around town!

Teddy Bear Clinic

Saturday, February 27, 2 pm

What do you do when your teddy bear or favorite stuffed animal does not feel well? Bring it to the Library, of course! Doctors from the Huntington Memorial Hospital will be available in the Children's Department to check and diagnose your teddy bear. It will be a Beary special check-up for all!

St. Patrick's Craft Day

Thursday, March 11, 3-5 pm

Top o' the morning to ye! Come paint the town green in honor of St. Patrick's Day at the Crowell Public Library. Children, ages 3 and up are invited to make St. Patrick's Day crafts. Drop in any time between 3 and 5 pm. Helpers and supplies will be on hand. Registration is not required.

Games Unplugged

Saturday, March 27, 2-4 pm

Unplug the Wii and Xbox; it's Board Game Day at the library! Spend an afternoon enjoying board games with family and new friends. Bring your own board games or use our Scrabble, checkers, chess, and more. All ages are welcome! Registration is not required.

For more information about any of the programs on pages 4-7, please call (626) 300-0777.

Crowell Public Library Programs continued...

Library Programs FOR TEENS

Sponsored by the Friends of the Crowell Public Library.

Anime Club

Fridays: January 8, February 5, March 5, 3:15 pm

Love anime? Can't get enough? Come gather with fellow fans and watch and talk about your favorite anime films at Crowell Public Library's brand new Anime Club! We will begin watching Miyazaki's films. Kick-off meeting is January 8th at 3:15 pm. Japanese refreshments served: pocky, mochi and more!!!

Teen Advisory Board

Monthly, third Friday: January 15, February 19, March 19, 4-5 pm

Would you like to make an impact? Middle School and High School students (grades 7-12) are invited to join Crowell Public Library's Teen Advisory Board. Your input is needed--come with your opinions and ideas, volunteer, recommend books and movies, be the word of mouth that drives other teens to the library. We meet monthly in the Barth Community Room. Refreshments are served.

Comix @$#! Book Club

Wednesdays: January 27, February 3, February 10, and February 17, 5:30 pm

Comix @$#! introduces teens to the world of comics and graphic novels. For four weeks, we will explore, enjoy and discuss graphic novels through 10 unique selections such as Persepolis by Marjane Satrapi and American Born Chinese by Gene Luen Yang. Join us on February 17 for a manga exchange party and to make comic sushi. This program is made possible by the California Center for the Book, "Book clubs in a Box" program.

Anti-Valentine's Day Party

Friday, February 12, 3:30 pm

Valentine's Day? Tired of the hype surrounding this holiday? Love doesn't have to be a commercial, does it? Come to the Barth Community Room at the Crowell Public Library and celebrate Anti-Valentine's Day! Make Anti-Valentines and Mad-Libs break-up letters. Enjoy delicious Valentine's Day treats -- after all, the sweets are the best part of the entire day!

Library Programs FOR ADULTS

Brain Aerobics with Francine Katz

Mondays, 12:30-2:30 pm OR Tuesdays, 9:30-11:30 am, beginning January 11

Challenge your memory, improve your recall and language skills, and ease the burden of hearing loss through lip reading -- and all in a relaxed, fun-filled class atmosphere! Francine Katz, MA, SLP, CCC invites you to join her as she challenges the class to memorize sentences, play word games, and focus on lip-reading skills. She has taught this class at various locations for over 45 years and students rave how their mental agility has improved after participating. Get your brain in shape and join us for a weekly two-hour brain workout. This is a no-fee, no obligation class; preview visits welcomed!

Adult Connections:

Coffee, Conversation, and More

Monthly, Third Thursdays: January 21, February 18, March 18, 10-11:30 am

Spend the third Thursday of the month enjoying coffee, donuts and a new topic each month. Upcoming "explorations" include container gardening, using digital cameras, decluttering or any other topic that interests the group. Check our web site or call us at (626) 300-0777 for more details.

Club Read: Let's Talk Books!

Mondays: January 11, February 8, March 8, 9:30 am

Have you read some books recently and want to talk about them? Or maybe you want to hear what other people recommend for good reading (or what to avoid). There is no assigned reading, but everyone is encouraged to talk about what you've been reading during these friendly and informal meetings. Drop in and check it out!

SPECIAL EVENTS at the Library

Selling on E-Bay for Beginners

Tuesday, January 5, 1 pm

Back by popular demand! Susan Chick will walk you through the basics, including creating PayPal and eBay accounts, organizing your merchandise, posting your items with quality pictures, shipping tips, and strategies on how to maintain a seller's positive rating to keep you in business for years. This event is free and all are welcome.

Shafran Ensemble

Tuesday, January 5, 7 pm

Enjoy this performance by 5 local students studying at the Johns Hopkins Peabody Institute. The Ensemble played here last summer and they were fantastic, featuring a violin, viola, and two cellos. For this show they've added a clarinet, and their centerpiece will be the Mozart Clarinet Quintet. Come early to find a seat and immerse yourself in great music.

Rose Pruning Workshop 2010

Saturday, January 9, 9:30 am

Join Ron Serven (San Marino Parks Manager) as he presents his 17th annual free Rose Pruning Workshop. This 90-minute class teaches garden enthusiasts the correct techniques for pruning roses; attendees are inspired to prune their own roses and insure a great display in the coming months. Questions are encouraged!

Computers for Absolute Beginners

Monday, January 11, 10:30 am-12 pm

Are you new to computers and searching for a way to figure them out? Learn how to turn on a computer, use a mouse, and open applications. We'll answer basic questions to get you started. Reserve your spot for this free one-class introduction by calling (626) 300-0777. See "Computer 101 for Adults" on page 25 if you would like to take a computer class.

Taming the Paper Jungle!

Friday, February 5, 12 pm

Are papers on your desk turning into a jungle of confusion? Can you quickly access the information that you need? Need guidance to tame your paper jungle and simplify your life? If you answered "YES" to any of these questions, then Professional Organizer, Pamela Mims of Mims Consulting can lead you to simple and fast solutions to turn piles of printed chaos into neat files of important information by finding, sorting, filing and storing your paperwork.

Introduction to E-Mail

Tuesdays, February 9, AND February 16, 1-2:30 pm

While these two classes are for beginners, a little computer experience is helpful. Learn how to write, send and receive e-mail and how to manage your account. In the first class, everyone will set up a free Gmail account and learn some of the basics. In the second class, we'll answer questions you've had while practicing your skills, and learn features like sending photos and attachments. Reserve your space by calling (626) 300-0777.

Intro to Social Networking for Adults

Thursday, February 11, 7 pm

Learn the advantages, disadvantages, ins and outs of Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter from the point of view of a tech-savvy librarian, an adventurous grandmother, a middle-aged professional and a vivacious teenager, all of whom will populate our panel. They will share their diverse experiences and answer all your questions in a relaxed, open atmosphere. Light refreshments will be served. Attendees will have the option to sign up for our "Fun With Facebook" workshop (see the next paragraph).

Fun with Facebook

A Hands-On Workshop

Date will be determined by registrants at the "Intro to Social Networking" event (see previous paragraph).

What was the realm of the college crowd has become all the rage among those in midlife and older. Facebook is a terrific and easy way to keep in touch with friends and family of all ages! Learn to set up a Facebook account and get ready to find friends from all stages of your life. Prerequisite: some knowledge about how to use a computer and the Internet. For example, you should be able to use email. Enrollment is limited. Registration is required; call (626) 300-0777.

Thaddeus Lowe and the Mt. Lowe Incline Railway

Tuesday, March 2, 7 pm (Rescheduled from Fall 2009)

Opened on July 4, 1893, the Mount Lowe Incline Railway was hailed as Earth's Grandest Mountain Ride. Built by Civil War balloonist Thaddeus S. C. Lowe and railroad engineer David J. Macpherson in the mountains above Altadena, this funicular was operated for 43 years and served nearly four million passengers from around the world. The spectacular railway lives on only in the vintage photographs presented by author Michael A. Patris. Aim your trolley for the Barth Community Room for a fascinating hour of local history!

LA Opera Talk:

Wagner's, "Götterdämmerung"

Sunday, March 14, 2 pm

Join our speaker from the LA Opera in a discussion about Richard Wagner's Götterdämmerung (Twilight of the Gods), the final part of the Ring trilogy. Musical excerpts and the opportunity for questions and comments will also be featured. The series will continue in April.
